Ultimately, our primary goal is to make sure everyone enjoys themselves, so much so that we can hear them say as they leave:

Q: What makes The Beda Place a special wedding venue?
A: First, let me say – congratulations on your engagement and upcoming wedding! Enjoy every second of it. The Beda Place is one of my favorite venues. Its Victorian charm, colorful gardens, and “Kissing Bridge” over the waterfall offer a relaxed atmosphere not offered elsewhere.

Q: What event themes work the best at The Beda Place?
A: The Beda Place is a canvas -- and you are the artist! Picture it: lush, green lawns, tall oak and pine trees, babbling waterfalls, multiple ceremony areas and an outdoor stage. The interior space is all about versatility. Themes that incorporate natural elements work particularly well here.

Q: Why should I select a wedding coordinator?
A: There are three main reasons to contract a professional coordinator:
One: The Beda Place is a multi-level facility. I keep track of each area to ensure the needs of the bridal party, family, friends, and guests are met and all runs smoothly. Two: On your wedding day the bride has one job -- to be the bride. Plus, you want your family and guests to truly experience and enjoy the day, creating life-long memories. I handle the logistics, am familiar with the property, can read a room, read your face, and anticipate what needs to happen next so that you don’t have to. Three: Venues occasionally include wedding coordinators. In most cases, they are sales staff. Their real job is not to coordinate - it’s to make the sale. With Adagio Events you have a true coordinator with services designed to take care of you specifically, from the wedding day itinerary to the Adagio Packing Party, rehearsal to handling a panic attack. And on your wedding day I’m the first to arrive and last to leave – no matter how long your magical day is.
